

Please support a la carte cable programming. I am tired of the offensive nature of so many of the shows and would like to be able to choose my own channels. I don't mind paying a bit more.